FULL BIOGRAPHY

He has been traveling on this Earth for more than 20 years now, in this cabin called "human"; exploring different cultures, different habits, becoming a dancer of his reality where music plays a big role in his journey.

Framilani is based between Koh Phangan and Bali where cacao ceremonies and ecstatic dance have had a major influence on his DJ style. Framilani mobilises all the interchanges style of sound to express a profound innovation where music may take you. The ethno melodic style melting with angelic mantras supported by ancestral percussion creates a unique alchemy for remarkable sound journey.

He explains: "The music should ultimately heal and strip us of the burdens we carry, to achieve the ultimate state of emptiness. The goal is to stir some pain from deep inside and replace it with a rhythm, a clap, or a percussion, as a celebration of Love - the very symbol of life itself."
